What To Do In New Zealand South Island

Dunedin and Otago Peninsula Full-Day Nature Tour

Make the most of your visit to Dunedin, the oldest city in New Zealand, on a full-day tour. Be picked up from your central accommodation or from Port Chalmers, and begin your tour with a scenic drive of Dunedin's city highlights. Visit New Zealand's oldest university, the historic Dunedin Railway Station, and Baldwin Street, the steepest street in the world. Journey out onto the Otago Peninsula to explore Larnach Castle's unique gardens where you will have the opportunity to purchase lunch.

Milford Sound Waterfalls, Peaks, and Wildlife Cruise

Discover Milford Sound's best value, most relaxed and entertaining 2-hour cruise to the Tasman Sea. Make your own way to the Milford Sound Visitor Terminal to embark on your adventure. Penguins, dolphins, seals and a variety of birdlife call Milford Sound home so keep your eyes peeled for that once in a lifetime photo opportunity. Glorious on a fine day, Milford Sound's ethereal, moody beauty in the rain is equally spectacular.

Mt. Cook, Tasman Glacier, & Alpine Centre Day Trip

Set off from Christchurch on a small-group day trip for jaw-dropping scenery and an amazing alpine experience in incredible surroundings. Travel in the comfort of a modern minibus, soaking in the breathtaking scenery of the Southern Alps. Discover sites such as the Ben Ohau Range, Lake Tekapo, Lake Pukaki, and even multiple sites from "Middle-Earth". Savor a delicious buffet lunch at the famous Hermitage Hotel. Visit the Sir Edmund Hillary Alpine Centre's 3D theatre, museum, and Digital Dome Planetarium.
